++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cold and unsettled with outbreaks of rain, sleet and snow.

Today:
Cloudy and rather wet during the morning, with rain and hill snow. The risk of some settling snow over the highest ground. Brighter with blustery showers later. A cold day especially given the windy conditions. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloudy overnight with further blustery showers, these easing during the second half of the night with clear spells developing by dawn, a frost developing inland. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Tuesday:
A bright and cold start but clouding over as Storm Barra arrives. Becoming very windy with severe gales in places. Outbreaks of heavy rain, falling as snow over high ground. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Unsettled and cold on Wednesday with strong winds and showers. Drier briefly on Thursday before more rain arrives for Friday, temperatures close to or slightly below average.
